

Gmail

From: <donna.harvey@gmail.com> Donna .Adelson
Sent: Tuesday, Feb 18, 2014 11:30:23 PM UTC
To: <wendieladelson@gmail.com> Wendi
CC:
Subject: info for your lawyer when it comes to depo on Danny
Attachments:

Message

Honey,

Ok. your attorney MUST depo Elvis to see if any of the retirement accounts that Elvis has ever had a check written from them during the course of your marriage, if any of them were funded through any joint assets (your mutual Schwab account) or in any way passed thru joint financial accounts) then you are entitled to a portion of those accounts. Even if nothing was ever done improperly on these accounts, (and he has some very large retirement accounts), let's aggravate him the way he's trying to aggravate you and make him do the research and show STATEMENTS FROM EVERY MONTH, from the date of your marriage to the date of the filing of the divorce. You need to see whatever he deposited into those accounts where the money came from. It's very possible some of it came from your joint schwab account and then he's up shit's creek! Why shouldn't he have to do this? It's what I mentioned to Kristin in court yesterday and she nodded her head. Now she needs to do something about it.

It just seems ridiculous for him to be able to depo you but for you and Kristin not to give him the same crap he's pulling on you. It's time to give it to him!

Also, what can your attorney do to be proactive to give him some grief? It seems like you're always on the defensive but I don't see her doing anything offensive. I was really surprised that you didn't speak with her prior to meeting her in court. Can't you meet with her and work out a "plan of attack" or some sort of strategizing so you know what you're up against and what else he can do? When is there an end to the nonsensical litigation and waste of the court's time and your time and your financial obligation to your attorney?

I think it's really important to get the parenting coordinator to either testify or be brought to deposition perhaps by your attorney so we can get her to request that Elvis be court ordered for psychological testing. And, if he's this "off" perhaps he should not be permitted to take the children out of the country.

What happened with the dean? Any help or do you need to proceed to the provost? Something has to be done with this asshole!

Call us if you feel up to it tonight. If you're too tired, then call us in the morning after you leave the boys at school if you can.

Love you,
Mom and Dad